

How is the perspective for the future characterized? How do the quotations differ?

" Dreaming, after all, is a form of planning."
- Gloria Steinem

„What's coming, in the new year,
you cannot know,
must hope and trust in God.“
- Martin Luther

„The future has several names. For the weak, it is impossible; for the fainthearted, it is unknown; but for the valiant, it is ideal.“
- Victor Hugo

„The future is a convenient place for dreams.
There, as in utopias, the wise man likes to build his castles in the air.“
- Anatole France

„The future we want needs to be invented, otherwise we will get one we don't want.“ -
Joseph Beuys

Information about the authors

Beuys, Joseph (*1921- †1986): German performance artist, sculptor and draughtsman

France, Anatole (*1844 - †1924): French novelist, poet, critic and historian

Hugo, Victor (*1802 - †1885): French writer of novels and poems

Luther, Martin (*1483 - †1546): German theologian and reformer

Steinem, Gloria (*1934): US-American feminist, journalist and women's rights activist